

The problems numerical relativists solve are esoteric

Few need relativistic physics, fewer need Einstein's gravity

Most numerical relativity codes are of no use to the world at large

But every field is like that!

$$G_{\mu\nu} = 8\pi T_{\mu\nu}$$

Every field has problems that are unique, esoteric, limited in scope

